CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH, J.

DATED: 7TH MARCH,2006

P.C.:

1. By consent the disputes and differences between the Petitioner and the Respondents are referred to the Sole Arbitration of Justice S.N. Variava (Former Judge of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India).

2. Ad-interim order dated 21st December, 2005 to continue for the period of eight weeks from today. The Petitioner is at liberty to apply for continuation or addition or other interim/ad-interim reliefs before the Learned Arbitrator.

3. It is clarified that this order will not come in the way of the Respondents in shifting the fix deposits from one bank account to another bank or account. However, if any such exercise is undertaken intimation thereof to be given to the Petitioner. It is also clarified that the Respondents, if they so desire, may undertake preparatory work in respect of subject matter of prayer (h) of the Petition. However, no increase in the share capital or alteration in the shareholding pattern will be undertaken for a period of eight weeks.

4. Petition disposed of.
